

Gyasi Atu Sutton

Email: Gyasis@gmail.com Skype: gyatsu Phone: +13372586134

EXPERIENCE

Loyal Source Government Services

Paramedic June 2016 - October 2016

40 hours per week

Contracted paramedic working on a military installation supporting the special forces training division with ALS and BLS services during training and maneuvers.

Medcor

Paramedic December 2015 - September 2016

Prn - 20 hr per week

Care and treatment of workers of an employer that Medcor is contracted with. First responder and clinic duties, triage, and medical record administration. Also, drug and alcohol test administration. Thoroughly trained and compliant with OSHA laws and regulations as dealing with injuries in the workplace.

XstremeMD

Paramedic Feb 2014 - Sep 2014

14 days on 14 days off shifts 12 hours per day

Care, treatment, and stabilization of critical and non-critical patients, through remote applications, based on an oil platform, have traveled to injured patients locations by boat and helicopter numerous times to assess and treat/stabilize injured patient, suture application and removal, and digital blocks are some of the skills acquired from this company along with usual paramedic skills. 14 day work period. 14 days off.

(Oilfield clerk duties) Data entry. Involved in payroll entry for contract workers, Data entry for daily reports. Inventory, shipping and receiving, HLO, Involved in morning safety meetings, including training employees for dangerous events. Logistics and communications

(Safety) Involved with weekly inspections for platform, random walkthroughs for JSA compliance. Involved with safety Inspections and compliance for the crew on the platform for different jobs or projects on the platform. Transported by helicopter or boat to other sites for monthly safety inspections and company core compliance regulations.

New Orleans EMS

Paramedic Mar 2013- Sept 2014

40 hours weekly

Care, treatment, and stabilization of critical and non-critical patients through busy 911system. Have treated many trauma patients in career, including blunt trauma (car accidents) and penetrating trauma (stabblings and gunshot wounds). Have been a lead medic on many cardiac arrest events and respiratory distress events Involving airway management. Trained in Disaster Management.

Army Corps of Engineers

Engineering Tech Jan 2010 – Oct 2010

40 hours per week

Acquiring and preparing samples, Identifying which tests to run per engineers' needs, Proficient in following scientific tests for soil: Hydrometer, Specific Gravity, sieve analysis, atterberg limits. Diagnosed network issues when tech support was not available. Modified programming on a regular basis. Ran numerous calculations per day with test results data. Other skills used, includes soil classification. Experience in AutoCad 2010 and 2011. Worked with 3d max and Google Sketchup to decrease time to have fully working 3d model of design mockup

Ampersand

General Manager Sept 2008 – Nov 2011

40 hours per week

Scheduled a staff of 30 Employees. Balanced cash at the beginning and end of the night. Inventory. Advertised through social networking. Involved in weekly planning through meetings and presentation. Dealt with dissatisfied customers daily basis. Dealt with banks through our account on any chargebacks that occurred. Diagnosed all audio video equipment, POS systems, and security system as needed. Cost control. Involved in training of new employees. Scheduled events.

EDUCATION

Universita degli studi della Campania Luigi Vanvitelli

6 year masters program in Medicine and Surgery

Naples, Italy

Faculty of Medicine and Surgery, October 2014

Graduation July 2020

Laurea Magistrale in Medicine and Surgery (equivalent to an MD)

University of New England

2 year Masters program of Public Health

Biddeford, Maine

School of Public Health

Graduation Dec 2020

Youngstown State University

4-year bachelor's Allied Health

Youngstown, Ohio

Allied Health, October 2014

Degree: Bachelors of Applied Science 2016

Mid-plains Community College

Traditional 2-year associate program

McCook, Nebraska

Department of Emergency Services, Paramedic Training

Degree: Associates of Applied Science 2012

REFERENCES

On Request